passionate intensity, to conjure away the cold war. The trouble is, they can't do it. The Jews had no trouble taking over America. The corrupt commercial society of America threw itself into their hands. Indeed, the American Goyim labored so earnestly to become Judaized that the Jews ought to be a little bit suspicious about the matter. This is too good to be true. We constantly hear "great patriots" and "great anti-Communists" howling that we are in danger of being "taken over." What in God's name is there left to take over? We were taken over decades ago. The Jews do not need any revolution to put them into power in America; they are already in power in America. There is really a serious question about who was taken over by whom though. Did the Jews really take control of the American Goyim, or did the American Jews merely fall into the cesspool which had been dug by the American Goyim? In any case, Jewish leadership of America is clearly a case of the blind leading the blind.

Between them, the American Jews and the American Goyim have lost sight of the real basic nature of the east-west confrontation. It is fundamentally a military confrontation. It has absolutely nothing to do with Marxist ideas or any other kind of ideas. Russia could become capitalist and the U.S.A. Communist, and it would not make the slightest difference. All efforts to define or describe the east-west confrontation in terms of "Christian, capitalist civilization" versus "godless, atheistic Communism" are bound to fail, because there is no substance of reality in such a fanciful way of thinking. Monolithic geopolitical confrontations of this kind are not created by mere ideological differences. They are created by population pressures and differences in basic culture.

Dragging "anti-Communism" into the east-west confrontation only confuses the issue. We have allowed our domestic controversies to become confused with our for-who will go into black communities and kill black women and children. The Black Panthers will go into White communities to retaliate." The purpose of this offensive is to give President Nixon powers to usurp total dictatorial policy; a centralized police force has long been on the planning board, and in the making.

At this writing, oddly enough the black insurrectionist Ralph Abernathy is enroute to Russia, and his compatriot, Hosea Williams is off for Red China. Expressions in alienation have no loyalty or attachment, except the special identity to particular groups where the parliamentary operations can be changed to fit political accommodation. In more sober times banishment would have been the decree; today it is political fickleness that keeps law and order in a state of flux.

ign affairs. In the 1920's the newspapers of America were full of propaganda designed to associate the American industrial working class with "Red Russia." This was pure defamation. Today the basic "right wing" philosophy is still the same old mess of pottage. The basic line is that "Red Russia" and the dirty working class are allied to each other, and must be defeated together in a holy crusade staged by god-loving bourgeoisie, the only sound element in society. In fact, the great capitalists are and always have been the principal financial backers of world Communism. They planted Communism in Russia in order to undermine Russia; this was merely part of the ages-old east-west confrontation.

Communism Planted

The effort to destroy Russia by planting the disease of Marxism among the Russians has failed. This failure has not been faced squarely, especially by the British Israel racketeers, who want to howl against "Red Russia," but at the same time want very much for Russia to be "red." They are affiliated with the great capitalists who spent untold millions to plant Communism in Russia. How could Russia dare to be anything except red, when so much money was spent on the revolution? Russia took the ungodly filth of Marxism firmly in hand, and used it to create a new chauvinistic patriotism. Watch some day while a squad of young komsomols salute the red flag! Already, when they are mere boys, they dream of "the day" when they will overthrow the great whore of Babylon, the dirty, evil Sodom and Gomorrah of the west. They might as well be Peter the Great's military cadets. The revolution, which the Jews hoped would bring Russia permanently under their control, has not really made a great deal of difference. See the boys sitting in the Sputnik class in a Russian school! They are dreaming of the day when their space ships can blow New York over the moon.

All of this, you understand, has no place in the Messianic Age, the pax judaica. The world is supposed to be ruled by Jews. There is supposed to be a world state with a world court in Jerusalem. David Ben Gurion himself said so. So why do the Russians need all of those 100-megaton bombs? Why do they have more armor in Eastern Europe today than both sides had during the whole of World War II? The funny little Jews in Washington and the funny little Jews in New York simply cannot understand what the Russians are about. Do they not know that the Messianic Age has arrived? Do they not know that they are supposed to get in line and obey the Jews, like all the other good little nations? See how well the Americans obey the Jews! They pack their children into school buses every morning, so that they may be sent away to some crime-ridden slum, where nobody in his right mind would go, even in daytime, without an armed guard. The Americans submit absolutely, completely, one hundred per cent! The few remaining "rebels" are easily channelized by a handful of so-called "right wing" leaders. These are merely the Judas rams who lead the sheep to the slaughter. They bray a few stupid slogans, tell a few cock-and-bull tales which would insult the intelligence of a 12-year-old idiot child, and they wipe out American patriotism with the greatest of ease. They go about their business today in a bored, indifferent way. Most of the patriots are old and gray. It is merely a matter of amusing the over-sixty set. It has nothing to do with real politics.

Still there is the cold war. It won't go away. The Jews print editorials in The New York Times. They even print incantations in the Times book review section. In spite of all that, the obdurate Russians persist in building more atomic submarines. Soviet defense minister Marshal Grechko acts as if he had never heard of the Messianic Age.

Jews Subdue America

The Jews have subdued America, but they have failed to control Russia. This leads directly to the situation described by Francis Parker Yockey in his brilliant essay "World in Flames." World War III is approaching rapidly. The so-called "Communist issue" is no longer of any importance. Only the military issue counts now. Gen. Curtis Lemay has predicted that Russia will issue an ultimatum to the U.S.A. within 18 months. Maj. Gen. Thomas Lane has added the prediction that they will demand that we put Gus Hall into the White House. (Imagine Gus Hall going to the White House and sleeping in Lincoln's bed!) Personally, I do not believe that the Russians will issue any ultimatum at all; they will try to achieve maximum surprise. The big attack most likely will come the day after a "successful" peace conference is held. The silly asses of the American intellectual world will be busy planning books and magazine articles about "Permanent World Peace in the Jewish Messianic Age." The armed forces will be disbanded; what need for them in a world ruled by Zionist wisdom? When this state of affairs comes, I advise you to betake yourself to the tall and uncut timber, and hide yourself well, and stay there until World War III blows over. Then will the 100-megaton mushroom clouds arise over New York, Detroit, Chicago, and Pittsburgh!

If it is any consolation to you, saints and mystics say that some good will come of all this. The little shepherds of Fatima predicted that when the race of men have been thus scourged, they will learn to behave themselves better. Bipeds of the genus homo are an obdurate lot and often learn better from the scourge than in any other way.

Is there any way in which the west might still be saved?

Certainly not by "anti-Communist" slogan howling. Not by the Jews. Not by economic theories or political theories. Not by either the right or the left wing. The method recommended by the mystics and saints is penance and reparation; but when you mention these matters today, hardly anybody even knows what you are talking about. The west has a great deal for which to repent. Under the right-left system, it allowed its political, economic, and religious life to be organized around the central idea of class division and class hatred. The ruling class of the west today is an egomaniac rabble consumed by blind, ignorant pride. They are fierce, vain, proud, haughty, despisers of the good; that is to say, they are politically incompetent, unfit to exercise the arts of real statecraft.

Russia understands these weaknesses of the west, even if the idiot rabble of Washington and New York do not. For generations, Russia and the west have watched each other narrowly, looking for weaknesses. Back in 1900 the western rulers saw the weaknesses of Czar Nicholas II and his Czarina Alexandria. They moved in quickly to exploit those weaknesses and installed Lenin and Trotsky in Russia.

Today Russia has recovered from all that and narrowly watches the follies of the funny little men who cavort in New York and Washington, not to mention Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. Russia will exploit these follies to the hilt.

Don't worry about the Jews. The six million who live in and around New York will vanish skyward atop the 100-megaton mushroom cloud. The three million who live in Israel will be liquidated. The three million who live in Russia will be converted to paganism.

The west? Don't fret about it. Forget it. Get out while the getting is good. Waste not your time of day "electing conservatives" to Congress; Congress is an obsolete political institution. Do not waste time of day "fighting Communism." The military nature of the present situation makes political and economic controversy obsolete. Just flee from old Sodom and Gomorrah, and don't look back, as Lot's wife did in the Bible. You know what happened to HER when she looked back. She was turned into a pillar of salt. You wouldn't want to be turned into a pillar of salt would you? •••••
